A thank-you note from us to you:

There is no possible way that the yearbook editors and staff could have accomplished the 2012 Herald without help. We would like to thank Mr. Sigall for lending us cameras in our time of need, Mr. Czarnecki for taking photos of our athletic department, and Mr. O'Brien for supplying the names of team members. We would also like to graciously thank Mrs. Cournoyer for allowing us to host fundraisers so that we could raise money to lower the price of the book. Also, the yearbook staff would like to thank teachers, community members and families for all of the ads and donations. Thank you all for your endless support that contributed to the 2012 Herald!

EDITORS TO STAFF

The past three years as an editor have been extremely difficult, a challenge I'm glad I had the chance to experience. By no means is creating a yearbook a one man job, that's why I would like to thank Ashley LaPane, Paige Fortier, Ashley Fabi, Justin Lopez, and Danielle Caye. There was no way of completing this book without the help of each and every one of you. Also, thanks to the staff for all of the work you helped with; we really appreciate the help and support you provided us. Lastly, I would like to thank our advisors, Mrs. Herber and Mrs. Romero; thank you for the countless hours of not only picking up our slack, but also giving support to us whenever we needed it. A yearbook staff needs to be a team, with great leadership and the editors would be pleased to present Danielle with the title of editor in chief.

Great job everyone! Good luck 2013!

Thank you to our wonderful staff who worked so many hours and with such diligence to make this yearbook the success it is. We couldn't have done it without you. I will truly miss you all next year. Your creativity in this book will be so wonderful to see a few years from now when I look back at my senior year.

-- PF <3

I would like to thank our Yearbook staff, Sra. Romero and Mrs. Herber for working hard to make this yearbook a great success. I'll miss you guys. I hope you've had as much fun as I have .

-- JL

Thanks to everyone who worked so hard to make this yearbook a success! I have learned so much this year as an editor. I will miss you all! <3

--AF

Thank you to everyone who put their hard work and dedication into this yearbook. We could not have done it without you all! Your combination of creative ideas and skills has produced an amazing yearbook I will be proud to enjoy for many years to come. You guys are awesome! -- AL <3

Thanks to everyone who has made this year a success, we needed every single one of you. Senior editors you have left huge steps to fill, I couldn't be any prouder of you guys! <3 I'm going to miss you all! --DC

The senior class chose Mr. Diciancia for the 2012 yearbook dedication. He was chosen for his sense of humor, passion for math, and undying love for bicycles. He is the only teacher we know who can relate anything in the world to math or politics, and we love him for that! No student leaves his class without a life lesson and a good laugh. The senior class will never forget his enthusiastic personality and love for teaching. Thank you for all that you have taught us, Mr. D!

Thank you for the opportunity to write to the graduating Class of 2012. I am humbled and honored to have been chosen by your class for the yearbook dedication. I wish for all of you happiness, health, and success. May the class of 2012 have positive memories of their classmates, teachers, administrators, and all their extra and co-curricular activities.

All I really need to know I learned at Windsor Locks High School. Extrapolate from everything you learned. Have a passion. Dream your dream. Look, listen, smell, feel, and taste everything life has to offer. Internalize the "D". Desire, determination, and discipline are among my top three.

Things in life to remember as you move forward are: to love, to feel that you are living life to the best of your abilities, to understand that life is a limited window of opportunity, and to contribute to the well-being of humanity.

Cherish the memories of the past, live the present, and dream of the future. LIVE, LOVE, and LAUGH!

Congratulations Class of 2012 and best endeavors!

– Mr. DiCiancia

Grandma, every day I go through life I think of you and try to make you proud. I want to do better and succeed and I am sorry it took me so long to realize how seriously I should take certain things in this life; I push myself a little harder with every step I take. Out of everything in my past my heaviest regret is not saying bye to you on your final day, I am sorry. I like the hand I was dealt by life because it has made me the person I am today and although I have endured my share of pain I would not change anything that has happened to me. I would like to first thank my mom, dad, and sister for supporting me through WLHS. I also want to show some love to my friends Mikey, Conor, Taylor, and the rest of the crew. We have had one heck of a time. These 4 years have just been a pre-game for our future. It is now time to start a new chapter in our lives, so I wish the best of luck to the class of 2012.

Ryan John,

What can I say about you, there isn't enough time in the world for me to finish. I love you basically sums everything up. I can't believe that 13 years ago you bit me and it started all of this and
"this" is AMAZING!! I couldn't ask for a better relationship, you are more than a boyfriend;
you're a best friend, a person there when I feel like the world is falling apart, and a person there to just put a huge smile on my face. You're the best babe and I can't wait to see where life takes us after high school. Thank you for being there for me and always keeping a smile on my face. I am so proud of all your accomplishments these past 2 years, you always seem to amaze me, on or off the stage, track, wherever you happen to be. Keep up the good work babe and know that I will always be by your side no matter how far away you are.

"When I met you, my heart skipped a beat. The sun became the moon and cold turned to heat. Roses weren't red, violets weren't blue. All because I fell in love with you."

Love Always,
Shelberrymuffin

Michael,
We are so proud of you,

As I sit writing this I cannot believe how fast the time has flown by. My little boy is graduating high school! It was a journey filled with joy, struggles and sometimes frustration, but as you grew you learned to overcome many things and it made you stronger. You have made some awesome friends and I believe these friendships will last a lifetime. I have never known anyone who loves being an American more than you. You love your Country and you are not afraid to show it. I will be sad when you leave home to pursue your dreams, but it makes me happy that you are finding your way. I am so very proud of you. Always believe in yourself and know that you are capable of anything you put your mind to.

All my love, mom

Michael,
Wow, you're finally graduating from high school; it's amazing how quickly time has flown by. It seems like each time I come home from school you are a new person, slightly more mature, a little smarter, and a huge drive to pursue your dreams. You have so much potential already and as soon as you believe in yourself, there will be no stopping you. You deserve to have great things and go far in life, and there is nothing in the world that can hold you back. Always believe in yourself and in the things you believe in. You are one of the few people I know who never stopped being their true self. You don't let anyone else but yourself influence you in whom to become and I admire that about you. You are truly a fantastic person and I am honored to call you my brother. Congratulations on graduating and remember to always be the best you can be!

I love you,
Kristen

Sam -

We are so very proud of all you have accomplished throughout your school years! You have come a long way from being a little boy who depended on others all the time to becoming an independent fine young man. You have been a huge success on the stage whether it was getting a solo in Vocal Motion or in a Chorus concert or landing leads in the Senior Class Musicals throughout your High School years. You have achieved the accomplishment of becoming an Eagle Scout for which we are very proud - a commitment you made in first grade - do you remember telling Mom you would become an Eagle? If you can accomplish that, you can accomplish anything! And now you will be off to Technical School to begin the next chapter of your life! It has all gone by way too fast. One day you will understand how fast it goes when you become a Dad and have kids of your own.

We love you more than words can say and all know that you will be a success in life - you have the drive and the commitment to accomplish anything!

All our Love -
